

NYC PARKS PRESENTS ARTS, CULTURE & FUN: MAKE YOUR MARK Watercolor to celebrate The River House

Boogie on the river with FREE live music, dance performances, community paddles, sports & games, hard-hat tours inside the Bronx River Alliance new home, and more!

Workshop description:

Learn the fundamentals of playing and exploring with learning about the process of selecting the proper paints and brushes to capture the beautiful colors and details of summer leaves. The information provided in this class will help you learn how to apply watercolor and create basic shapes using fun, easy techniques. All levels of skill are welcome; no previous drawing or painting experience is required.

Daniel Colon is a multi-talented visual artist and illustrator. His mastery of traditional mediums lend his work an incredible sense of quality and craft, capable of conveying a wide array of visual concepts. Daniel studied at The Art Students League and Hunter College and is a recipient of the Xavier Gonzalez and Ethel Edwards Grant.
