V. Weekend Getaway Excursions: Beyond The Bronx

1. The Gateway to the Adirondacks

Experience the revival of Glen Falls, a small upstate city known as the Gateway to the Adirondacks. This package provides 2 nights of lodging in the perfectly located downtown Queensbury Hotel, an escorted tour of the in-town Farmers Market and passes to the famous Hyde Museum Collection. If you are coming with children, you will have tickets to the new hands on, interactive GO Museum. If not, take a tour of the local brewery, Coopers' Cave Ale in deference to the historical narrative "The Last of the Mohicans". Once you are at the Gateway, you'll want to extend your weekend and continue your excursion by heading into the heart of the Adirondacks and enjoy NY State's largest park with all its offerings.

Value $ 350.00, Opening Bid $100

2. River to River: From the Bronx to the Battenkill

See first hand what these two rivers have in common and how each has been successful in reminding their communities that a "River Runs Through It". Your weekend excursion in the Battenkill Valley of Upstate New York includes 2 nights lodging at the Cambridge Hotel located on Main St of this classic, upstate town. After a stroll through downtown, we'll arrange a canoe rental and launch for you to experience the Battenkill at its finest. Two specially prepared lunch boxes from local caterer, Spoonful Catering & Kitchen are included for a picnic stop along the riverbank. After dinner for 2 at local bistro Dish in the nearby town of Greenwich, your evening entertainment can be had at an 1871 restored Opera House or viewing a classic Polo match at the area's newest classic club, Surya Polo Club. The next day, rent bikes to explore the back roads of Washington County and see why the Tour of the Battenkill has grown into the largest amateur bike race in the country. Feeling a bit more leisurely? Let Susan Sanderson of Washington County Open Studios Tour introduce you to some of the areas' best artists in their own studios and maybe go home with a Will Moses (yes a direct relative of Grandma Moses) original.

Value $450.00, Opening Bid $200

3. Saratoga Springs: History, Horses & Health

The Vanderbilts & the Whitneys knew a good thing and so do the visitors who flock to the Saratoga Springs area today. Enjoy the three H's (History, Horses & Health) that this gem of a small upstate city offers. You will be staying at a private guest house located on the property of resident New Yorkers that is located just outside the Town of Saratoga along the same Hudson River that hugs NYC's westside and home of the Saratoga Monument. For history buffs, head to the Saratoga Battlefield National Park and enjoy a tour of this famous battlefield that is known as the Turning Point of the Revolutionary War. After you see the views of the river from on high, explore the Hudson by canoe and catch a glimpse of bald eagles, beavers and herons that make their homes along its banks. Your next day can be filled with the history of Saratoga Springs known for its summer mansions, mineral baths, Victorian racetrack and world class performing arts center. The Gardens of Yaddo book included in this package provides a glimpse of what you can expect when you tour this famous writers and artists retreat nestled at the edge of Saratoga Springs.
